

what am I expecting from eng hons and am I likely to get it?

As the semester began I was literally so excited and happy about this course. I do now too but I found it a little bit difficult for me.
And sometime I just feel like giving up but as I try harder I am understanding it. At first I thought this course is going to be just novels, stories and poem but now I know. I remember when I was little my father used to show me the plays of famous Indian writer Prem chand and I never realised when I got habit of reading him so much. In class I always see mainly reference of western authors and it's sometimes so alien thing for me.
And I have to work alot literally a lot on my pronunciation and grammar but as I have been ^{doing} practice I see a little bit improvement in me and I am so happy about this. As I grow older I learn how a few quotes can change your mind and how some stories might teach you one of the great life lessons too. Though at first I can't even gather a little info of what my teachers are teaching but I know I am getting better. Now finding a little spark in me to learn about new things. As taught by Pramesh Sir that free writing can teach you a lot of things and will make your head free of negative thoughts and now I do feel it just doing free-writing will help in clearing your mind. As it ~~was~~ is helping me too. Hope in future I will have my dream. I always had a dream of becoming Frankly literature professor remembering how my English teacher used to teach us. In future I know I will do it one day hopefully.

 Sometimes I do doubt myself but it will fall in place eventually. I had also started writing a diary too and it's so good and makes you feel refreshing. Though I had only attain few classes of Pramesh Sir but all of them were just so amazing and I loved how Sir everytime ask us to remember what he had teach in his last class and also how he talked from basics and also about how we students get anxious few times. It was just so good and it really helps me to do improvement. And the idea of Free-writing by Premesh and ma jagriti ma'am it is just too good and I love every part of this. About literature it will take time but it is going to be good and all. Just 5 page a day and you will get addicted to it.

 As I love reading Prem Chand from my childhood and found hard to learn about western authors, I gave it a try I love it too. Getting excited for this. And thankyou to our teacher to help me out.

Thankyou
