

Invitation to attend the 8th International meeting of OERu partners

September 13, 2019

Dear OERu Partners and Colleagues,

The National Institute for Digital Learning at Dublin City University is proud to host the 8th International Meeting of OERu Partners which precedes the ICDE 2019 World Conference on Online Learning. Planning for the OERu meeting is well underway and we extend an invitation to OERu partner representatives and observers from interested institutions to participate in this important event scheduled for 30 and 31 October 2019 at our St Patrick's campus in Dublin, Ireland.

Our theme this year is 'Realising OERu's community service mission – Sustainable learning for development through OER'. We will:

- share insights and experiences with the implementation of OER at our institutions,
- plan the next strategic phase of the OERu in supporting learning for development,
- review progress with the implementation of the OERu 1st year of study, and
- determine operational priorities for 2020.

Details regarding venue, transport, accommodation, and other items of interest are available on the <https://meetings.oeru.org> website.

Please RSVP by 11 October 2018 by registering directly online here: <https://oer.nz/oeru2019rego>

The partner meeting will be followed by the 8th Meeting of the Council of Chief Executive Officers on 1 November 2019. Vice-Chancellors, Presidents, and Chief Executive Officers will receive a separate letter of invitation.

If you require any further information or assistance please contact Wayne Mackintosh (wayne@oerfoundation.org) or Mark Brown (mark.brown@dcu.ie).

We are very excited to be hosting the international meeting of the OERu family in Dublin. We look forward to seeing you there.

Sincerely,

Professor Mark Brown
Director, National Institute for Digital Learning
Dublin City University
