

Creative Commons Policy

Consent of this agreement supports the principles and values of sharing, changing, exchanging, learning and benefiting from Open Educational Resources (OER) by using Creative Commons licences.

This licensing agreement provides permission for educators to reuse, redistribute, revise, and remix materials while acknowledging the intellectual property and attribution rights of the original creator.

Warrington School adopts the following as default licence to all resources wherever possible:

Creative Commons Attribution Share Alike 3.0 New Zealand Licence (CC BY-SA)

- agrees that unless obligations in an resources created will be licensed under the default licence.
- will attribute resources to its copyright holder and share resources under the conditions stipulated under the default licence.
- will endeavour to wherever practicable clearly label resources with the appropriate Creative Commons symbol. For reference: <http://www.creativecommons.org.nz> otherwise stated in contractual employment agreement all

The exceptions to our Creative Commons policy are as follows:

- Students Work. Our school does not make any claim over the ownership of students' work.

Licence Details

Attribution-Share Alike (BY-SA)

This licence lets others remix, tweak, and build upon your work even for commercial purposes, as long as they credit you and license their new creations under the identical terms. This licence is often compared to open source software licences. All new works based on yours will carry the same licence; so any derivatives will also allow commercial use.