COURSE TITLE: WOOD MACHINING
COURSE CODE: DTE 234
CREDITS HOURS 2
LEVEL 200
SEMESTER THREE
COURSE LECTURER STEPHEN JOBSON MITCHUAL

COURSE OBJECTIVE

This course is designed to equip students with the knowledge and skills involved in the use of Woodwork machines. The courses will also emphasize the need to observe workshop safety measures when using the machines.

AREAS OF COVERAGE

- Circular saw
- Band saw
- Surface Planer
- Thicknesser
- Spindle moulder
- Wood lathe
- Mortise
- Portable machine tools

TEACHING METHOD

This course is practical biased and will be taught through practical activities. A variety of teaching methods will be adopted. These include:

- Lecture
- Demonstration
- Group project work
- Group
- Presentation/discussion
- Industrial visit

MODE OF ASSESSMENT

Both continuous assessment and end of semester examination will be used to evaluate/asses student’s performance.

Continuous assessment - 40%
End of semester - 60%
Any student (or a group of students who fails to participate in or submit his/her project work will be given incomplete results. Student are advised to submit their cutting list to the workshop assistants by the end of 5\textsuperscript{th} week of the semester.

REFERENCES:

