

Love Shot

You invade my territory,
With one shot from your eye
You break my defenses.

The words of your voice are lullabies that
Sap my fire power

Till now
My heart had locked out all
Now,
Love enters without a knock.

Seated on my lap
Serenity lulls me
Overpowers me

Your capturing look
Caresses
Humility perfumes my flowers...

Love, you invade my territory,
With one shot from your eye
You break my defenses.
