

A Better World through Open Education

Empowering our people

5-6 December 2019

Sargood Centre, Otago Polytechnic
Dunedin, Aotearoa New Zealand

OTAGO
POLYTECHNIC
Te Kura Matatini ki Otago

Learning
& Teaching
Development

Join our two-day inaugural open education symposium hosted by Otago Polytechnic and New Zealand's Centre for Open Education Practice (COEP).

The theme is 'social justice through open education' and includes:

- Making education more sustainable using Open Educational Resources
- Leading change towards more open education
- and Open Educational Practices.

There will be keynotes, presentations, workshops and panel discussions.

Keynotes:

Dr. David Porter (a Virtual Presentation), is the Chief Executive of eCampusOntario, Canada, and a long-time advocate for the benefits of adapting new technology to deliver educational opportunities, and been involved in open and distance learning since the 1990s.

Dr. Cheryl Brown is Associate Professor in e-learning in the School of Educational Studies and Leadership at the University of Canterbury and co-Director of the e-learning Lab. In recent years, she is focusing on the development of digital literacy practices and the role of digital devices in student learning. Cheryl is an active collaborator in the national research project on textbook affordability.

Free for all Otago Polytechnic and University of Otago teachers and students

Full attendance: $70 (Symposium plus workshops)
Symposium: $50 (full day Thursday)
Workshops: $20 (half day Friday)

Register now: <https://oer.nz/coep19>

Image Credit: Ricardo Lima

