A typical day down the islands starts at 9:00 am at the dock, "Crews Inn" Chaguaramas where we pick you up with a small boat. Whilist Kiskadee is still at her mooring you can feast on a hearty breakfast and relax We then sail into the Gulf of Paria passing the islands of Gaspar Grande, Carrera Prison Island and Monos. As lunchtime approach us we slip into Scotland Bay where we anchor. You can dive into the Bay for a refreshing dip (floatation devices provided), while the crew prepares the boat for lunch. There are lots of shade, no reason to bake in the sun, unless you want a tan. Also we are equipped with a shower on deck. After lunch we heat it up a bit, with your favorite music on our on-board Sound System, drinks flowing, life's sweet. You'll have a whale of a time.

After 4:00 pm we lift the anchor and slowly head back to Chaguaramas. This time we pass the Navy Base, The Oil Rigs and The Yachts. A scenic boatride while you carry on liming in the shade.

At dusk the boat is back at its mooring in Chaguaramas floating in the the usually beautiful sunset. You can depart now if you choose, but hey there's no need to rush, we take you back to shore at your request using the small boat.

A day like this is what alot of people would like to do. We however are very flexible with just about everything. For example: Are you a sail lover who want to sail all day? Sure we can, it's a sailboat after all.

Or At the other end of the extreme, do you have no desire to go anywhere but stay at the mooring in Chaguaramas (wedding)? That's fine with us too. It's your lime after all!

Just Give me a call.

No request is silly to us.

We've heard it all and did it all and our

Guests Loved It !!!

Looking forward to sailing with you
