

Have Faith, Dolly

(To my daughter and her siblings)

Dolly,
Faith makes the earth go round
And the sun's light provide life.
To king and servant, rich and poor,
Faith gives the same service.
Invite faith to go with you
And your search for fortune
Will end in a home of gold.
On the changing faces of life's journey
You will see smiles of joy,
Frowns of sorrow.
Be it kindness or cruelty
That comes your way
Cling to faith.
For, where all others perish
Faith stands in bloom.
